"I find there is no chance of my election and desire to thank my friends for their kindness and to say to them that I do not desire them to vote for me. As to the methods used most Republicans of the State are familiar and I have nothing further to say on that subject at present."

This is the sequel to one of the most hopeless and persistent political battles ever waged in Illinois. It followed on the heels of a meeting of anti-Hopkins members of the House in a room adjacent to Mason's headquarters. headquarters. About thirty, principally Sherman soldiers, were present, and it was decided that the attempt to defeat Hopkins was a failure. Most of the Sherman followwas a failure. But the best-pleased individual in Springfield, not excepting Candidate Hopkins, sat before a cheerful grate fire in the executive mansion, surrounded by his captains and lleutenants, with a telephone at his elbow Governor Yates made no attempt to conceal his satisfaction.

MASON DEPARTS.

Senator Mason did not call on Mr. Hopkins with honey on his lips or an olive branch in his hand. He packed his valise and boarder a Chicago sleeper. To-morrow he will leave for Washingtom.

This marks the close of the second act in the political tragedy inaugurated two years ago to get rid of Yates and Lorimer. The first enoised with the Republican State Convention last year. The third act will be a continuous performance beginning next week, lasting through the legislative session and culminating in the State Convention next year.

There was a prelude this morning in the House when the administration started an investigation of the coal famine in order to discount any possible advantages Attorney General Hamlin might gain from his efforts to discount any possible advantages Attorney General Hamlin might gain from his efforts to discount any possible advantages Attorney General Hamlin might gain from his efforts to discount any possible advantages Attorney General Hamlin might gain from his efforts to discount any possible and turnished the freezing people. Mr. Hamlin is strongly identified with the anti-Yates faction and has inaugurated a searching and laborious inquiry fint the heart of the subject. Representative Davi's resolution for a committee of five House members to investigate the subject was pushed through the House by Speaker Miller in a hurried and unparliamentary manner.

An amendment by Mr. Murray for a joint committee was ruled out probably because the Senate could not be trusted to select suitable conferees to act with the House members.

the Senate could not be trusted to select suitable conferees to act with the House members.

Mr. Johnson, a Democrat, pointed out that the State already was conducting an able and expensive investigation. Mr. Gray, another Democrat, suggested that the object of the resolution might be to create a few more places for hungry patriots. The Democratic side had faith in the Attorney General and the State Attorney of Cook County. But the organization triumphed and the Speaker was authorized to appoint a committee of five, to make an investigation on behalf of the House at heavy expense.

Representative McElvain offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Penal and Reformatory Institutions to report the contracts now in force in the the penal institutions of the State; amount the State received for convict labor; the revenue derived by the State; the sum the State has invested in machinery used under the contracts, and profits made by contractors. The committee is asked to suggest methods for employment of convicts if such contracts are abolished.

SHOOTING AT DANCE AT MOREHOUSE, MO.

Marshal Dan Lance Was Killed by Dolpheus Hill and Deputy Taylor Wounded by Jim Hill.

BROTHERS ARE NOW FUGITIVES.

One of Them Was Wounded by Taylor as They Fled-Countryside Excited and Searching for Slayers.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Sikeston, Mo., Jan. 12.—At Morehouse, six miles west of Sikeston, Mrs. Amanda Holder gave a dance last night to her numerous Among those present was Dolpheus and Jim Hill of Johnson County, 11linois. It is said that both were drunk and created a disturbance Night Marshal Dan Lance and Deputy Geneva, to be minority member of State Foard of Arbitration, vice Frederick Job, resigned. Mr. Hogan is a member of the Democratic State Committee.

Senator Stubblefield introduced a bill in the Senate to appropriate $10,000 for the purchase and perpetuation of Fort Massac, in Massac County, as a State park. It provides for a Board of Trustees, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, State Regent of Illinois, of the Daughters of the Revolution and two Illinois daughters, to be appointed by the State Regent. The board is authorized to buy ten to forty acres, convert it into a park and maintain it as such.

The Democratic Steering Committee will decide to-morrow when the Democratic caucus will be held and arrange its details. It probably will be next Thursday.

Congressman Williams will be the nominee of the minority. Senator Fowler will present his name in the Senate and Representative Rapp in the House. Representative Lake of Nashville probably will present Mr. Williams's name to the caucus.

Senator Albertsen of Pekin introduced a bill in the Senate prescribing the death penalty for any attempt on the life of the President of the United States or any person in line of succession to the Presidency while in the State of Illinois, also the Governor of a State or Territory while in this State.

Senator Berry asked that an hour be set apart on Tuesday, January 27, to pay proper respect to the memory of the late Senator William F. Harris of Hancock County, who died after adjournment of the last Legislature. The request was granted.

Senator Fowler introduced a bill to repeal the act passed two years ago requiring reports of births and deaths to be sent to the County Clerk. The section of the law that is most obnoxious, is that providing that the Board of Supervisors shall designate certain persons as a board, who are charged with the duty of issuing certificates of interment, and no body could be burled without such certificate. Senator Fowler was falsely charged with the duty of issuing certificate Marshal John Taylor were called to pre serve the peace. A general fight ensue ers. Dolpheus Hill shot and instantly killed Dan Lance, while Jim Hill cut Taylor with a knife so badly that he may die.

As the Hill boys started to leave the house, Taylor shot one of them in the shoulder and hip, wounding him so badly that his brother had to support him as they walked by Senator Fowler.

MILLERAS A SPEAKER.

Speaker Miller is giving evidence of his incapacity to manage the House. If it were not for Clerk John A. Reese the House would be in a sad state all the time. It is freely predicted that David Shanahan will occupy the chair more hours than Speaker Miller. Shanahan has the knowledge of parliamentary law and the ability to run the House. There was a tangle this morning over a resolution by Davies of Chicago for the appointment of a special committee of five to investigate the shortage of coal in Illinois.

Johnson of Sterling and Gray of Decatur, awny. away.

Searching parties were soon organized but, up to a late hour to-night, the Hill brothers had not been captured. They are supposed to be in hiding somewhere on the St. Louis and Gulf Railroad, near Morehouse, as it has been learned that another brother, who is employed at the Himmelberger-Harrison Lumber. Company's mill as freeman, added. of five to investigate the shortage of coal in Illinois.

Johnson of Sterling and Gray of Decatur, Democrats, made motions to refer to the Judiciary Committee and in the way of amendment. On a viva voce vote these were declared bost and then the original resolution was declared adopted without the formality of putling the question to the House. Mr. Trautmann called the Speaker's attention to the incompleteness of the record and the Speaker announced he was out of order.

A resolution was adopted deploring the death of Representative R. P. Hanna of Wayne County, who died on July 29.

J. L. PICKERING. Lumber Company's mill as fireman, aided the two men in making their escape and was afterwards seen coming into town from the direction of the road mentioned. Excitement is intense and more trouble is expected. Both Lance and Taylor were good men and highly respected and threats of violence are heard against the Hill boys on every side.

An inquest was held upon the body of Marshal Lance this afternoon and the jury's verdict was that he came to his death by pistol shot from the hands of Dolpheus Hill. Taylor was conveyed to his home and on every side. Morehouse was well represented in Sikes-ton to-day, many citizens having come here at Louisiana, Mo. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Louisiana, Mo., Jan. 12.—D. S. Flagg, one of the most prominent citizens of Pike County, died suddenly at his home here at an early hour yesterday morning. He had not been feeling well for a week, though he had attended to business without interruption. About 2 o'clock in the morning he called to his family, but was dead before the physicians, hastily summoned, could reach the house. Apoplexy is given as the cause of death.

Mr. Flagg was prominent in the lumber business, owning several retail yards in Missouri and Illinois. He was president of the Louisiana Business Man's Association. He was connected with every movement to advance the business interests of the city.

He was also prominent in politics, being recognized as a Republican leader. He was the Republican candidate for Congress from this district in 1900 and had served on the State Committee for his party. He was well known over the State and even among national leaders.

He was a native of Massachusetts and was nearity 60 years old. His wife and four children survive him. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias, in the councils of which order he was prominent. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Louisiana, Mo., Jan. 12.-D. S. Flagg, one f the most prominent citizens of Pike Telegraphic reports, however, announce that a "high" of generous proportions has severed its connection with Montana and is headed this way with a large quantity of frosty weather in its wake.

The local weather officials are rather inclined to believe that the meeting of the "low" and the "high" will be rather disastrous to the "low," and that the mercury will secrete itself in the bottom of the thermometer before night.

ROCK ISLAND OUTLET. Believed It Will Use Erle Tracks to

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, Jan. 12.—Belief that the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad will secure an outlet to New York over the Erie Railroad is gaining strength. The Rock Island interests have bought some of the Erie stock, it is said, but with no idea of obtaining control. The control of the Erie properties is in the hands of J. Pierpont Morgan and James J. Hill, and there is little probability of any immediate change.

The recent election of Norman R. Ream of Chicago as chairman of the Erie Executive Committee is regarded as strengthening the Hill interest in the management of the property. Mr. Ream is a personal friend of James J. Hill, and he went into the Erie board at the same time that Mr. Hill was elected a director.
